

Botanical Society of Britain & Ireland:

helping you as you learn more about wild plants

You don't have to be a BSBI member to:

- ❖ attend our national events: field meetings, workshops & conferences – like this one!
- ❖ meet local botanists and discover their plant ID tips
- ❖ access free online resources, e.g. plant distribution maps, Species Accounts, videos & training webinars
- ❖ read or publish in British & Irish Botany, BSBI's new on-line scientific journal
- ❖ enjoy our country newsletters, News & Views blog & monthly e-newsletter: all free to view/ download
- ❖ discover helpful hints, links and online resources to get you started with plant ID
- ❖ check out our range of free ID resources tailored for more advanced botanists, e.g. the Plant Crib
- ❖ contribute plant records to our citizen science projects e.g. Garden Wildflower Hunt & New Year Plant Hunt and take part in Wild Flower Hour
- ❖ apply for a grant to attend a short plant ID course – but BSBI members are favoured where there is competition for grants, so a good reason to join us!

Joining BSBI brings you many more benefits:

- ❖ exclusive access to BSBI's network of 100+ expert plant referees (including two referees just for beginner botanists)
- ❖ three issues each year of BSBI News
- ❖ access to all scientific papers published in New Journal of Botany from 2011 to 2017
- ❖ you can develop or gain new skills & improve job prospects by volunteering with BSBI
- ❖ BSBI members are favoured whenever there is competition for Training Grants, Plant Study Grants and Science & Research Grants
- ❖ money-saving offers on BSBI Handbooks & other publications (examples on left)
- ❖ take part in our annual Photo Competition
- ❖ become part of a botanical community whose data & research inform policy-makers, academia & conservation agencies
- ❖ More info in our latest Annual Review
